Cross Dresser arrested

KUWAIT: A male cross dresser was arrested by Hawally police and sent to vice detectives for further legal action. Police said that the same day, a male was arrested for wearing women's clothing, makeup and public nuisance were made. The man was found inside a car dancing and wearing women's clothes and makeup. It is illegal in Kuwait to 'cross dress' (wear the clothes of the opposite gender).

VIVA sponsors 4th E-Government Forum 'E-Services Perspectives'

KUWAIT: VIVA, Kuwait's fastest-growing and most developed telecom operator, announced that it will sponsor the 'E-Services Perspectives' forum since its first chapter as it has interest in the world of technology. "He added: "We hope that our participation in the forum will emphasize on the importance of e-Services as a means to enhance our participation in the e-Government and e-Society,'' said: "VIVA, leader provider in internet, e-services and security' , organized by Nouf Expo, in collaboration with the Ministry of Information Technology.

"Discussions during the forum will emphasize on the importance of e-Services as a means to enhance our participation in the e-Government and e-Society,'' said: "VIVA, leader provider in internet, e-services and security' , organized by Nouf Expo, in collaboration with the Ministry of Information Technology.

"Discussions during the forum will emphasize on the importance of e-Services as a means to enhance our participation in the e-Government and e-Society,'' said: "VIVA, leader provider in internet, e-services and security' , organized by Nouf Expo, in collaboration with the Ministry of Information Technology.

"Discussions during the forum will emphasize on the importance of e-Services as a means to enhance our participation in the e-Government and e-Society,'' said: "VIVA, leader provider in internet, e-services and security' , organized by Nouf Expo, in collaboration with the Ministry of Information Technology.

"Discussions during the forum will emphasize on the importance of e-Services as a means to enhance our participation in the e-Government and e-Society,'' said: "VIVA, leader provider in internet, e-services and security' , organized by Nouf Expo, in collaboration with the Ministry of Information Technology.

You won - now clean up the assembly

By Hudaifur Abdulrah

KUWAIT: Immediate action must be taken to reduce the number of secretaries for each MP from 15 to a number that is enough to scientifically and research-wise help MP. The current number is nothing but profiteering by campaign staff and their relatives.

2. New lawmakers must be subjected to a training course on parliamentary work to enlighten them with regards to legislation and understanding the meaning of the constitution, because previous experiences have shown that they relied on the collected voting results and contributed in passing unconstitutional laws.

3. Strip paralyzing the role of the inaugural oath and adding phrases to show off. And a gesture of sympathy with the problems of the 2013 parliament gave to citizens in the summer, immediately cancel the taxi fuel coupons given to MPs.

4. As a reaction to the deteriorating economic situation, immediately change the lease contracts of MP luxury vehicles and substitute them with more economical ones.

5. Grant the public access to information about session agendas and minutes, MP's absence and their role in legislation and monitoring as a means to enhance public supervision of their performance.

6. In view of the mistakes committed by the Assembly in TV channel, it must be shut down, because there is no rule in the world that a private media, in addition to the role already played by state-owned media.

7. Stop using the parliament's papers for political activities, as people have already happened.

We hope these remarks find their way to implement and are not used to strike bargains amongst MPs - CLEAN UP the National Assembly!

Immediate cancellation of free fuel coupons

KUWAIT: The Sun organized a group of MPs, who were reported missing by her family for more than two weeks and took her to the station where she filed a complaint against him. The police then removed the woman from the home and took her to the station where she filed a complaint against her husband, who admitted the charges.

Cross dresser arrested

A man was arrested yesterday in the Batin Al-Abd area in a dramatic escape. The defendant confessed to calling a collision about a motor-clearance band in the area and discovered a man had discerned following the crash. His body was recovered and handed to the coroner. No further details were immediately available.

Ishbliya

A citizen punched his wife for going out shopping without his permission by beating and imprisoning her. The man was found inside a car dancing and wearing women's clothes and makeup. It is illegal in Kuwait to 'cross dress' (wear the clothes of the opposite gender).

You won - now clean up the assembly

By Hudaifur Abdulrah

KUWAIT: Immediate action must be taken to reduce the number of secretaries for each MP from 15 to a number that is enough to scientifically and research-wise help MP. The current number is nothing but profiteering by campaign staff and their relatives.

2. New lawmakers must be subjected to a training course on parliamentary work to enlighten them with regards to legislation and understanding the meaning of the constitution, because previous experiences have shown that they relied on the collected voting results and contributed in passing unconstitutional laws.

3. Strip paralyzing the role of the inaugural oath and adding phrases to show off. And a gesture of sympathy with the problems of the 2013 parliament gave to citizens in the summer, immediately cancel the taxi fuel coupons given to MPs.

4. As a reaction to the deteriorating economic situation, immediately change the lease contracts of MP luxury vehicles and substitute them with more economical ones.

5. Grant the public access to information about session agendas and minutes, MP's absence and their role in legislation and monitoring as a means to enhance public supervision of their performance.

6. In view of the mistakes committed by the Assembly in TV channel, it must be shut down, because there is no rule in the world that a private media, in addition to the role already played by state-owned media.

7. Stop using the parliament's papers for political activities, as people have already happened.

We hope these remarks find their way to implement and are not used to strike bargains amongst MPs - CLEAN UP the National Assembly!

Immediate cancellation of free fuel coupons